

Data Privacy for ETugma:

What information do we collect?

- -Personal information (names, address, contact numbers, birthday)
- -Educational Background
 - For Parents (Child's School)
 - For Tutors (Educational Background)
- -GCash Transactions

How do we use your information?

We use the user's information in order to verify the person registering the account. It is also used when transactions are made between tutor and parent.

How can you manage your information in the system?

The user can view and manage your account and information by accessing the dashboard. In the dashboard, your detailed information is displayed there and you can edit it by using the edit function provided in the dashboard.

How long do we keep your information?

As long as the user is registered to the system, the information given will be stored in the database even if the account is disabled.

How will you know if the policy changed?

Users can be notified of a policy change using the announcements that are made in the system. Users can view the policy change done by ETugma.

How does ETugma comply to legal request or compliance with the law?

ETugma will access and share your information during a response to legal requests like search warrants, law orders, and etc. and it will be accordance of the Data Privacy Act of 2012.

These policies are based upon the Republic Act 10173 or the Data Privacy Act of 2012.