

I am writing to express my interest in the English teaching position at International Delhi Public School, Cherukupalli, Andhra Pradesh. I am a licensed professional teacher who recently passed the Licensure Examination for Teachers (LET) with a major in English for secondary education. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your esteemed institution and help shape the minds of future generations.

During my academic journey, I have gained comprehensive knowledge and skills in teaching English, including literature, language, and communication. My training has equipped me with the pedagogical techniques necessary to engage and inspire students, fostering a love for learning and critical thinking.

I completed my degree at Polytechnic University of the Philippines, where I was actively involved in various teaching practicums and internships. These experiences allowed me to develop effective classroom management strategies, design engaging lesson plans, and implement diverse instructional methods to meet the needs of all learners.

In addition to my academic qualifications, I bring strong organizational, communication, and interpersonal skills. I am dedicated to creating a positive and inclusive learning environment where students feel valued and motivated to achieve their full potential. I am also committed to continuous professional development and staying current with the latest educational trends and best practices.

Attached to this letter are my resume and other relevant documents for your review. I would be delighted to discuss how my background, skills, and enthusiasm can be a valuable asset to your institution. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you soon.

Sincerely,

Mayoshi Aseron
